

Accessibility Statement

Casa Common is committed to providing a website that can be accessed by all, including users with disabilities.

Our community strives to improve the usability and accessibility of its website and mobile application for all users, including those with disabilities. If you are a user with a disability, or an individual assisting a user with a disability, and have difficulty accessing or navigating our content, please contact us via telephone, noted on the Contact page section, so we can assist with providing the information or transaction you seek through an alternate communication method. Please note that our website may link to, or interface with, third-party websites that we do not control.

Casa Common strives to maintain compliance with the World Wide Web's Consortium's Web Content Accessibility Guidelines 2.0 Level AA (WCAG 2.0 AA) on our website, and:

- We have built our website using standard compliant HTML and CSS.
- We have ensured that the website content is structured in a logical manner using informative headings and labels where relevant, and are usable by customers who use assistive technology/screen readers.
- We have provided consistent navigation across the website.
- We have ensured that images have alternative texts and descriptive links.

Please be aware that WCAG 2.0 AA Guidelines are evolving and our efforts to comply with these guidelines are ongoing. If you would like to report any accessibility issues, please contact us at casa.common.la@gmail.com. We will make all reasonable efforts in order to update the page(s) and ensure their accessibility.